

Neuroscience of Belonging: Creating Connected Classroom Communities

This virtual workshop series is for practicing educators who want to explore classroom leadership practices that center compassion and resiliency for students and educators.

- Understand the neuroscience of learning.
- Examine the impact of trauma from outside and inside the school community.
- Learn tools and strategies to create connected classroom communities that nurture belonging and accountability.

Tuesdays

6 – 7:30 PM

January 11 – February 1, 2022

10 CPDU hours included

Instructors: Dr. Apryl Riley, National Center for Urban Education (NCUE), Kristin Hovious, SEL Chicago

Cost: $ 300.00

Registration: Click Here

Last Day to Register: Friday, January 7, 2022 at noon